First of all, you need to connect your router to your BT modem and the power. Once plugged in, you should now see a page entitled "Setup my Technicolor Gateway". If for some reason, you need to unlock your Bell 2Wire modem, you can go to the 2wire.com/keycode page or whatever it is and find a manual way to set your gateway. To unlock your BT 2Wire 2700HGV, you can use a different firmware like Sasktel Firmware or BT Voyager 2500v (BT Firmware). For Symantec Gateways, you can use the Symantec - Gateway 320 (Symantec Firmware).
